Hey Everyone,

Just this past weekend I performed my first set post Idol. It was unbelievable!

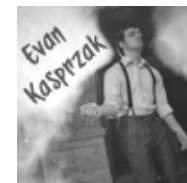

I performed at the D250 "Apathy Is Boring" event in Halifax and it was pretty wild. Huge enthusiastic crowd - I just felt so lucky to be a part of it.

Also this week I went to my first co-write and it was a great experience. I am used to writing a song by myself, so to throw ideas around with other amazingly talented people was such a welcomed process!

I think we came up with what could be the next single, and I'm really excited for it!

This weekend I will be performing at the Police Games with the top 10 from Idol - another great opportunity to just hang out with these great people! Then Mitch, Drew, and I are so lucky to be part of a War Child fundraiser in Simcoe.

I just feel so lucky to be a part of all these events, something I never would have had 6 months ago.

Thanks so much to everyone who has made this possible. I've been working hard.
